

Reflective Personal or Parish Study for 2020:

The Year of the Word

The Catholic Bishops of England and Wales wish to commemorate in 2020 the 10th anniversary of Benedict XVI's Apostolic Exhortation Verbum Domini on Sacred Scripture. This will also be the 1,600 anniversary of the death of St. Jerome whose Latin Vulgate translation of the Bible served the Western Church for centuries. A special year of celebrating, living, and sharing the Word of God in scripture, will begin on the feast of St Jerome, 30th September 2019 under the title "The God Who Speaks".

Maryvale Institute is pleased to offer a series of Study Guides to the New Testament. Each single module can be studied alone at home, or as part of a parish study group. You can also work towards the Certificate in New Testament Studies by completing six modules with assignments, for an additional cost.

All you need for study is a Bible and the study guide, which is offered as an aid to a reflective, meditative reading of the text.

Each study guide costs £25 to audit – with discount for parishes buying multiple copies.
